DECLARATION OF JONATHAN
W. CUNEO

I, Jonathan W. Cuneo, declare:

1. I am a founding partner of Cuneo Gilbert & LaDuka, LLP, a law firm headquartered in Washington, DC. Our firm has approximately 20 attorneys and devotes the majority of its practice to the representation of clients involved in antitrust, securities, corporate governance, consumer protection and products liability complex and class action litigation. My firm's resume is attached hereto.

2. I am admitted to the state bars of the District of Columbia and New York.

3. After a federal appellate clerkship, I began my career as an attorney in the Office of the General Counsel of the Federal Trade Commission. During my three years at the Federal Trade Commission, I worked on a number of very prominent antitrust cases.

4. I next worked as Counsel to the Subcommittee on Monopolies and Commercial Law of the U.S. House of Representatives' Committee on the Judiciary for four and a half years.

5. Since 1986, I have served as General Counsel and Legislative Representative of the Committee to Support the Antitrust Laws.

6. I was one of the three founding directors of the American Antitrust Institute. I served as a director from 1986 until 2009.

7. I recently co-authored THE INTERNATIONAL HANDBOOK OF PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT OF COMPETITION LAW (Edward Elgar Publishing Inc., 2010).

8. I have served as counsel in a number of significant cases including:

- Mangini v. RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company, 7th Cal. 4th 1057
(The first case to challenge the "Joe Camel" advertising campaign, resulting in the public release of documents showing the targeting of children)
- Dennis v. Metromail, Texas Dist. Ct., No-9604451
(One of the most significant privacy cases in United States history, involving an information company contracting with Texas inmates to process private information)
- In re Enron Corp. Sec. Litig., S.D. Tex., No. H-01-3624
(Washington counsel to defrauded shareholders of Enron Corporation resulting in $7 million recovery, the largest securities recovery in history)
- Rosner, et al. v. United States, S.D. Fla., No. 01-cv-1859
(The so-called "Gold Train" case which involved the looting of the personal assets of Hungarian Holocaust victims and survivors by the United States Army after World War II, resulting in a statement of acknowledgement by the government and a $25.5 million settlement)

- Galanti, et al. v. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, D.N.J., No. 03-cv-209 ($340+ million recovery on behalf of homeowners who purchased allegedly defective radiant heating systems)

9. I have represented the County of Los Angeles and the State of West Virginia in antitrust cases that achieved substantial recoveries.

10. The Trial Lawyers for Public Justice selected me as a finalist for its 2006 Trial Lawyer of the Year award.

11. Working side-by-side with me will be my partner, Joel Davidow, one of the most experienced and distinguished antitrust lawyers in the country. Mr. Davidow worked at the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, followed by 15 years in the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, where he eventually served as Chief of the Foreign Commerce Section and then Director of Policy and Planning. Mr. Davidow has been a partner in several firms that advised and represented major corporations. Mr. Davidow has been an adjunct Professor of Law at George Washington University School of Law, Columbia Law School, Georgetown Law Center, American University Law School, and George Mason University Law School, where he has taught courses in antitrust, regulation and international competition policy. Mr. Davidow is also the author of the ANTI TRUST GUIDE FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS ACTIVITIES (BNA, 4th ed. 2011).

12. My firm has litigated cases that are national and international in scope and has represented a diverse array of clients, including individuals, businesses, state and local governments, public interest organizations, and unions.

13. With 20 attorneys and six offices, my firm has the resources necessary to serve as one of the lead firms representing the automobile dealers in this litigation. We are ready and willing to invest the time and expenses needed to bring this action to a successful resolution.

I affirm under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true to the best of my knowledge.

/s/ Jonathan W. Cuneo
